

What's good for the ~~goose~~ gander ...

When Mother Goose learned that her layabout brother, Darby, had wheedled a car out of Ernestine Dinklaker, the overly generous animal rights activist, she played her “What’s good for the gander is good for the goose” card. After some initially testy negotiations, Mother wound up with a very nice Packard Patrician 400 plus a chauffeur.