

Mugplog to the Rescue!

When dinosaurs roamed the earth, they really ruled! In those days, man hadn't yet discovered weapons systems and was therefore disadvantaged when going mano-a-mano with one of these "terrible lizards." Here, Mugplog tries to rescue his bride-to-be Oguk from a ferocious Tyrannosaurus dinklaker. Although his brave attempt will be in vain, Mugplog and his caveperson cohorts will have the last laugh in only another million years when dinosaurs go extinct and man simultaneously invents the mambo.
